

BY THE KING.

A Proclamation to Declare, that the Procez of Green Waxe may be sealed at Oxford as well as at London, for the Courts of Kings-Bench, Common-Pleas and Exchequer, during these times of this unhappy distraction.

IS MAJESTY having received information from severall persons, and from severall parts of this His Kingdome, that the Legall proceedings in the great Courts of Justice at Westminster, the Court of Kings-Bench, the Court of Common-Pleas, and Exchequer, are much hindered because the Seales for those Courts commonly called the Green Wax Seales, are kept and continued in London only, whether many of His Majesties Subjects dwelling in the Westerne and Northerne parts, and other parts of this Kingdome, dare not resort for their Procez to be sealed in these times of generall distraction, But if His Majesty should ordaine that Seales should be kept at the City of Oxford, as well as at London, for the sealing of the Procez, of those Courts whether all Suitors, and their Attorneys, Clerks, and Solicitors, might have a free and safe access for the suing out and sealing of their necessary Procez returnable in those Courts, and thole be made returnable at, and in, the said Courts respectively at Westminster, where it is determined that a part of the next ensuing Terme of St Michael shall be held, it would much advance the course of Justice in those Courts: His Majesty threfore being willing as much as in him lieth, to give all the furtherance he can, to the free and due proceedings in ordinary justice for His Subjects: Doth hereby declare, that He will forthwith appoynt severall Seales to be kept at Oxford for those Courts, at some place certain, where at convenient houres, attendance shall be given, for the sealing of the Procez of those Courts, as it is usuall at London, of which His Majesties resolution and pleasure, all His Subjects whom it may concerne, are by this His Royall Proclamation to take notice, that they may apply themselves accordingly. Given at His Majesties Court at OXFORD, this twelfth day of October. 1643.

God save the King.
